

Chen, Kuan Hsing , National Chiao Tung University, Taiwan

In the Name of the Modern...

Since late 19th Century, "modernity" has been the trope around which power is organized and exercised. In the name of the modern, feudalism was attacked, imperialism forged, capitalism advanced; and subaltern groups subjugated. This presentation attempts to pinpoint what has come out of practicing the modern as a point of departure to rethink the political.